The Space Shuttle Main Engine is a staged combustion cycle engine that burns a mixture of gaseous hydrogen and liquid oxygen. The identifying feature of a staged combustion engine is that most of the fuel flow (except for a small coolant flow) and a small ...

Intel Management Engine is not actually disabled via the Disable option. It is paused at a very early stage of the Intel Management Engine boot process so that the system has no traffic originating from the Intel Management Engine on any bus. This ensures that you can debug a system problem without interference from the Intel Management Engine.
